Leading Band in Parade to Crash Out Piece Passing Reviewing Stand.

TAMMANY TO BE HERE

Carter Harrison, Mayor of Chicago to Head Delegation from the Windy City.

Efforts of the finaugural subcommittee on misie, whose personnel was an amounced yesterday by its chairman, bounced yesterday by its chairman. Fercey S. Foster, will be directed almost exclusively to a few details of arrangements for the inaugural coremony and the parade. The fact that me ball or concerts are to be given as in previous managuration years has relieved the committee of most of its work, and Chairman Foster stated has infait that there would not be a great deal that he and the associates can do. That be played on by the first bound in the parade as on by the first bound in the parade as on by the first bound in the parade will be remained to the construction of the control of the control

Would Wear Overalla ought to march in the insigneral parado in working clothes, according to the "little prince," Daniel J. Loden, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee for Saltimore. Last night stated that Loden was opposed to the plain people dressing on like dudes in high "silk hate, fancy uniforms," &cc.

It was suggested that the street cleaners should come over and march in their white wing" clothes, and the water department workmen in their overalls. Instead of guins they would carry picka and showles.

HEARING ON LOAN SHARK BILL.

President Taft Not Ready to Sign the Measure.

Although President Taft, following a favorable report from the District Commissioners, virtually had made up his mind that the loane sherk bill recently passed by Congress should be enacted into law through his signature, he has consented to postpone final action pending a hearing at the executive offices Saturday at 129 o'clock.

Henry E. Davis, representing the foan companies; John B. Colleys, of the Central Labor Union, and Bates Warren, a local attorner, will be heard against the bill. W. H. Baldwin, who represented the citizens associations in the long fight for the loan shark legislation, will appear in favor of the measure.
